

Go, Study the Bible

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1905

William James Kirkpatrick

The musical score consists of two staves of music in common time, key of G major. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with several rests and a fermata over a note in the first measure. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. A 'Refrain' section begins with a melodic line in the treble clef staff, followed by a tempo marking of 108 BPM. The lyrics for the refrain are: 'Go, study the Bi-ble! Go, read it with prayer; And look for the'. The music concludes with a final section of lyrics: 'As years hast-en on-ward, we'll prize it still more.'
