

Lead Me to the Rock

R. A. Searles, 1873

Asa Hull

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. When mount-ains of doubt hem me in on each side, And waves of af - flict - ion roll
2. When storms of deep trou - ble rage fierce-ly a - round, When fore - bod - ings of ill in my
3. The sun of pros - per - i - ty bright-ly may shine, And my heart round its trea - sures too
4. When near - ing the shore of the riv - er of death, And the mo - ments fly swift - ly with
5. What - ev - er my lot, be it wear - i - ly sad, Or ac - tive - ly bu - sy or rall. a tempo.

in like a tide; When vain - ly I seek some new path-way to try, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is spir - it a - bound; When the hopes of a life - time are blight - ed and die, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is close - ly may twine, When my hopes are in dan - ger of ris - ing too high, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is each la - bored breath, When los - ing my hold of each dear earth - ly tie, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is joy - ous - ly glad; In each joy and sor - row, my God, be Thou nigh, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is

Refrain

high - er than I.
high - er than I.
high - er than I. Oh, lead me to the Rock, Oh, lead me to the Rock, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I.
high - er than I.

high - er than I, Oh, lead me to the Rock, Oh, lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I.