

O Perfect Life of Love

1 O per - fect life of love! All, all is fin - ished
 2 No work is left un - done of all the Fa - ther
 3 No pain that we can share but he has felt its 4 And on his thorn - crowned head and on his sin - less 5 In per - fect love he dies; for me, his aw - ful now— all that he left his throne a - bove to willed; his toils, his sor - rows, one by one, are smart. All forms of hu - man grief and care have soul our sins in all their guilt were laid, that death! O all - a - ton - ing Sac - ri - fice, I do for us be - low.

 proph - e - cies ful - filled.
 pierced that ten - der heart.
 he might make us whole.
 cling to you in faith.

6 In every time of need,
 before your judgment throne
 your work, O Lamb of God, I'll plead—your merit, not my own.

7 Yet work your way in me,
 my self-will, Lord, remove;
 then shall my love and service be my answer to your love.
