

Light Will Greet Thee By and By

Latta C. Lord, 1871

L. M. Burkholder, 1900

♩=107

1. Is thy trem-bling heart a - wea-ry? Are thy foot - steps al - most gone? Does life seem a
2. Is thy spir - it sad with-in thee? Raise thy heart in ear-nest prayer; Trust a Fa - ther's
3. Has thy spir - it grown a - wea-ry? Do not fal - ter in the strife! God has work for wear-y bur - den? Cour-age, bro - ther, strug-gle on! Bear it cheer-ful - ly and brave-ly, lov - ing kind-ness, Trust a Fa - ther's ten - der care. Call up - on Him in thy sor - row, thee, my bro - ther, As thou tread'st the path of life. Dark-ness may ob - scure thy path - way,

Do not stop to weep or sigh; Af - ter night the morn-ing dawn-eth, Light will greet thee
He will hear thy fal - tering cry; Tho' thou seest no sign of dawn-ing, Light shall greet thee
Clouds may ga - ther in the sky; Storms may rage, but do not mur - mur, Light shall greet thee

Refrain

by and by.
by and by. By and by the morn-ing dawn-eth, By and by, by and by. Tho' thou see'st no by and by.

sign of dawn-ing, Light will greet thee by and by.

