

Work for the Lord Today

Jennie Wilson, 1904

John Wesley Dennis

♩ = 105

1. Hast-en a - way to the har - vest field, Work for the Lord to - day; Go and with glad-ness the
2. Hast-en, no long-er with id - lers stand, Work for the Lord to - day; Go and o - bey the di-
3. La - bor with those who have borne the heat, Work for the Lord to - day; Rest in the eve will be sick - le wield, Work for the Lord to - day. Hast - en, the mo - ments are speed - ing fast,

- vine com - mand, Work for the Lord to - day. Out in the field where the grain is white, calm and sweet, Work for the Lord to - day. Toil with the reap - ers till dusk ap - pears,

Soon will the time for your toil be past; Win the re - ward that doth ev - er last,
Ga - ther the sheaves that are gold - en bright. Fair will they shine in e - ter - nal light, Toil tho' your eyes may grow dim with tears, Look to the rap - ture of Hea - ven's years,

Work for the Lord to - day. Work, yes, work to-day, Work, yes, work to-day; Go and Work for the Lord to - day. Work for the Lord, yes, work to-day, Work for the Lord, yes,
Work for the Lord to - day. Work for the Lord, yes, work to-day, Work for the Lord, yes, la - bor with joy in the har - vest field, Work for the Lord to - day!

