

Let the Laurel Twine

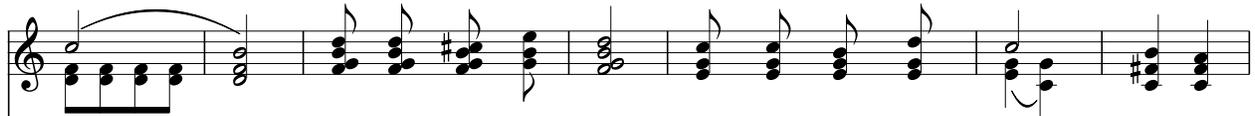

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1912

Isaac Hickman Meredith

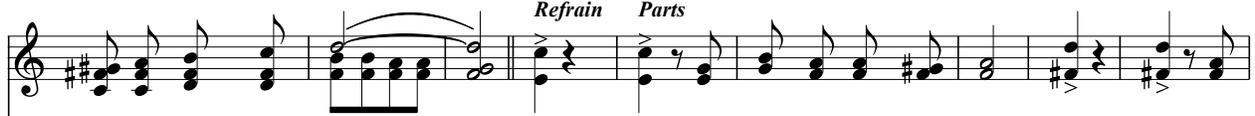

♩=88

1. Let the lau - rel twine, With the fra - grant pine, And the hol - ly ber - ries
 2. Trim the fes - tive tree, Keep - ing ju - bi - lee; We will spread good will and
 3. Out - ward signs of joy We would not des - troy, While our we bless - ings re - gay; Let our hearts be light, And our fire - sides bright, On the cheer; For the Sav - ior born Com - forts those who mourn, And His

 - call; But the bless - ed love Of the King a - bove, Is the hap - py Christ - mas Day.

 birth - day now is here. Hail, hail, O hail the hap - py day! "Joy, joy," O great - est joy of all.

hear the an - gels say; Let us cheer the sad With the tid - ings glad, "Un - to you is born,"

Hear the bless - ed word "Un - to you is born a Sav - ior, Christ, the Lord."

