

If the Light Has Gone Out

Curtis J. Williams, 1917

Curtis J. Williams

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. When the sun of your life has gone down, And the clouds in the west turn to
2. When you come to the end of the way, And life's sto - ry for you has been
3. When be - fore judg-ment's bar you shall stand, And the deeds that have here had con-

gold, End - less night then to you will have come, If the light has gone out in your soul.
told, O how sad all to you will ap - pear, If the light has gone out in your soul.
- trol, Good and e - vil ap-pear, O what then, If the light has gone out in your soul?

Refrain

O just think how in death you will feel, With the light grow-ing dim in your soul; O how lone-ly 'twill be! O how still! When the light has gone out of your soul.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). It features a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The piece is divided into three main sections: a first verse with three lines of lyrics, a second verse with three lines of lyrics, and a refrain with two lines of lyrics. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 95. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines.