Scatter Smiles as You Go

R. S. Taylor, 1864

William Batchelder Bradbury

♩=100

1. Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles As you pass on your way, Thro' this
2. Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles, 'Tis but lit - tle they cost; But your
3. Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles O'er the grave of the past, Where the
4. Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles, O'er the young who have strayed, From the 5. Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles, as you pass on your way Through this world of toil and care; Like the beams of the morn-ing that gent-ly play, They will heart may nev - er know What a joy they may car - ry to wea - ry ones Who are or - phan's trea - sure lies; In the tear drop that glis - tens there, light will shine, As the path where once they trod; You may lead to the fount-ain of truth a - gain, You may world of toil and care; LIke the beams of the morn-ing that gent-ly play, They will

Refrain

leave a sun - light there.
pale with want and woe.
rain - bow paints the skies. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, Scat-ter smiles as you pass on your bring them home to God. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, leave a sun - light there.

way; Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles.
Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles,