

The Redeemed of the Lord

Frances Virginia Thomas Hubbard, 1901

George Coles Stebbins

♩ = 100

1. The re - deemed of the Lord shall re - turn To Zi - on with mu - sic and song; And
2. The re - deemed of the Lord shall re - turn From lands where, as cap - tive, they sighed; With
3. The re - deemed of the Lord shall re - turn With sing - ing for Zi - on's bright day; Far,

Refrain
dai - ly sweet les - sons of mer - cy will learn, As they jour - ney the path - way a - long.
love and de - vo - tion their spir - its shall burn, As they sing of the One cru - ci - fied. With far on the hill - tops their glad eyes dis - cern, A - nd sor - row and fear flee a - way.

joy and with sing - ing, Thanks - giv - ing and praise, Their sweet voic - es ring - ing In With joy Their sweet tri - umph - ant lays; His mer - cy and good - ness Shall still be their song, As mer - cy, mer - cy Shall still home - ward to Zi - on They jour - ney a - long.

home - ward, home - ward a - long