

O Grace of God So Boundless

Thomas Todhunter Shields, 1908

Daniel Brink Towner

♩=145

1. There was nev-er a prince so roy - al, So wor - thy of death - less fame; There was
2. Ev - er bu - sy His hands with kind-ness, His lips o - ver-flowed with grace, While His
3. There were ne - ver such floods of sor - row, Such grief as the Sav - ior braved, As were ne - ver a friend so loy - al, Such an o - cean of love in a name! There were feet were im - pelled to mer - cy, Love im - mor - tal il - lu - mined His face. And yet brim - ming His cup on Cal - vary, When He drained it that we might be saved. O, was ne- ver such springs of sweet-ness, Such streams of in-ef - fa - ble bliss, Such pow-ers of ho-ly ne- ver a fiend did fa - thom Such depth of de-ri - sion and shame, And nev - er the vil-est ev-er a heart so har - dened, And can such in-gra-ti - tude be, That one for whom Je - sus meet-ness As welled in that he - art of His. O grace of God, so bound - less! O love of Christ, so trai - tor Did bear such a bur - den of blame. O grace of God, so bound-less! O love of suf - fered Will say, "It is no - thing to me"?

Refrain

true! Has sin your soul so blind-ed, That Je - sus is no-thing to you?
Christ, so true! is no-thing to you?