

Marching to Canaan

Mark Trafton, 1890, arr. Richard W. Adams 2012

Henry Clay Work, 1865

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. We're an ar - my all en - rolled of ma - ny mill - ions strong;
2. Hosts of dark - ness trem - ble as our ban - ners are un - furled;
3. Come a - long, ye co - horts strong, we're one in this cam - paign—
4. We are har - nessed for the war, the Spir - it's sword we wield;
5. Soon the war will have its end, and then this con - quering host,
6. See the grand re - view a - bove, a - long that gold - en street,

All look on with won - der as we stea - dy swing a - long;
See "the Lion of Ju - dah," who is bound to take the world;
One in Him whose sign we bear, who bore our guilt and shame;
See, a "dy - ing Lamb," em - bossed up - on faith's am - ple shield;
An - swer - ing the last roll call up - on that peace - ful coast,
Host be - low, and host a - bove, tri - umph - ant shout - ing meet;

Cheer each o - ther as we go with this tri - umph - ant song,
Kings a - gainst His right to reign shall from their seats be hurled,
Palms of vic - tory bought for all, who bear that won - drous name,
Breast - plate of a per - fect love which scorns to sin to yield,
Each re - ceives a vic - tor's crown of which we sang the boast,
Com - rades once so missed be - low, each o - ther joy - ous greet,

Refrain

As we are march-ing to Ca - naan.
 As we are march-ing to Ca - naan
 As we are march-ing to Ca - naan. March on! march on! we sing the ju - bi - lee! March
 As we are march-ing to Ca - naan.
 As we were march-ing to Ca - naan.
 As when once march-ing to Ca - naan.

on! march on! the grace that makes us free; Fol - low - ing our cap - tain, Christ, whose guid - ing eye we see, As we are march - ing to Ca - naan.