

The Shelter of God's Love

Mary E. Brown, 1903

William Howard Doane

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. When on the wea-ry heart there gent - ly dawns The full - ness of His love, Then
2. Safe in the sha - dow of His might - y wings, He hides us day by day; In
3. And when we each shall en - ter death's dark vale, Our earth-ly race well run, He'll with our spir - its tuned to joy and praise, We sing, "God rules a - bove!" that sweet shel - ter we may sweet-ly gain Cour - age to tread life's way. How He grant us faith and cour - age still to say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done."

Refrain

loves us, the notes come ring - ing, From all the faith - ful, His mer - cy sing - ing; The whole earth to Him is bring - ing Prais - es for His love and care.